Executive Overview

Company

All

$10.57T
Revenue

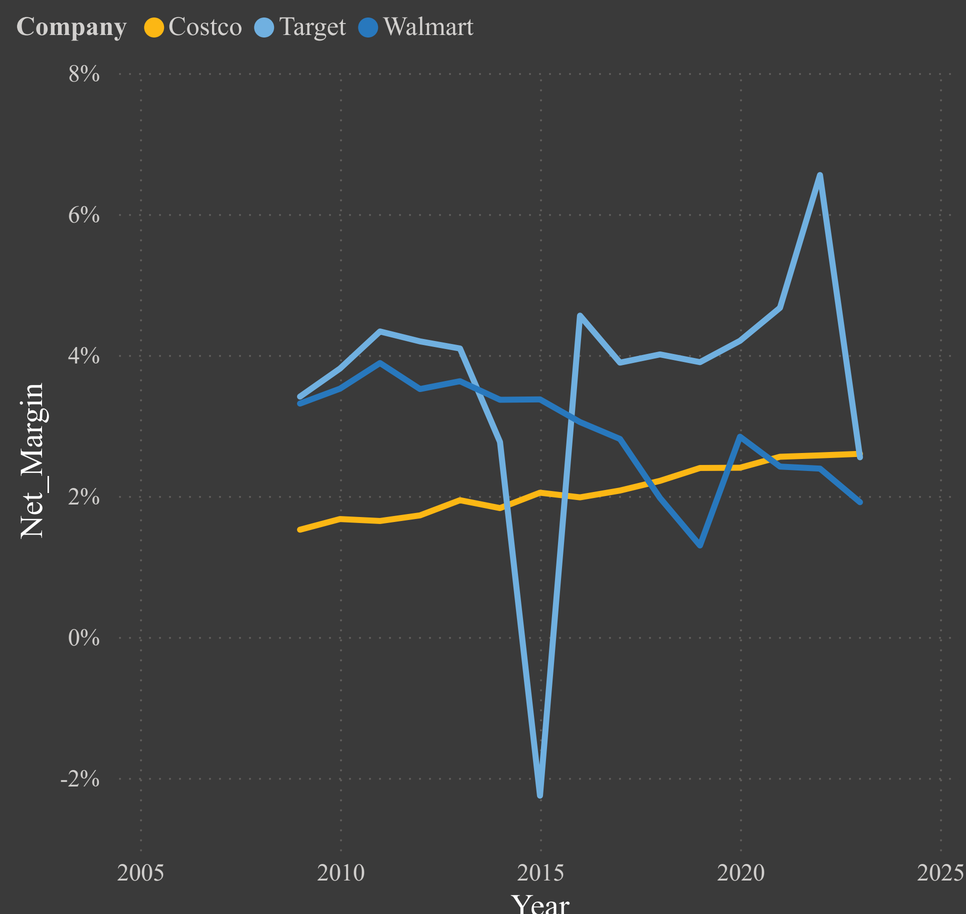
2.80%
Net Margin

19.24%
ROE

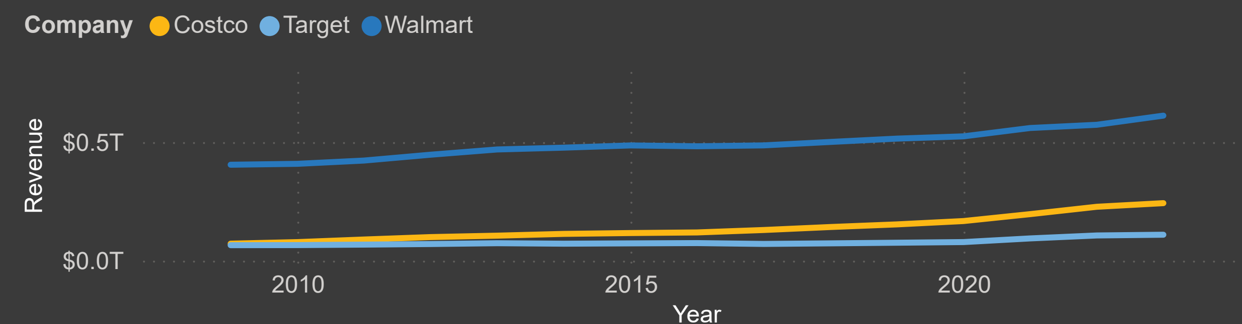
175.50%
Debt to Equity Ratio

- Walmart leads in absolute revenue scale but shows slower percentage growth consistent with maturity.
- Costco demonstrates the strongest revenue growth and margin stability.
- Target exhibits margin volatility relative to peers.

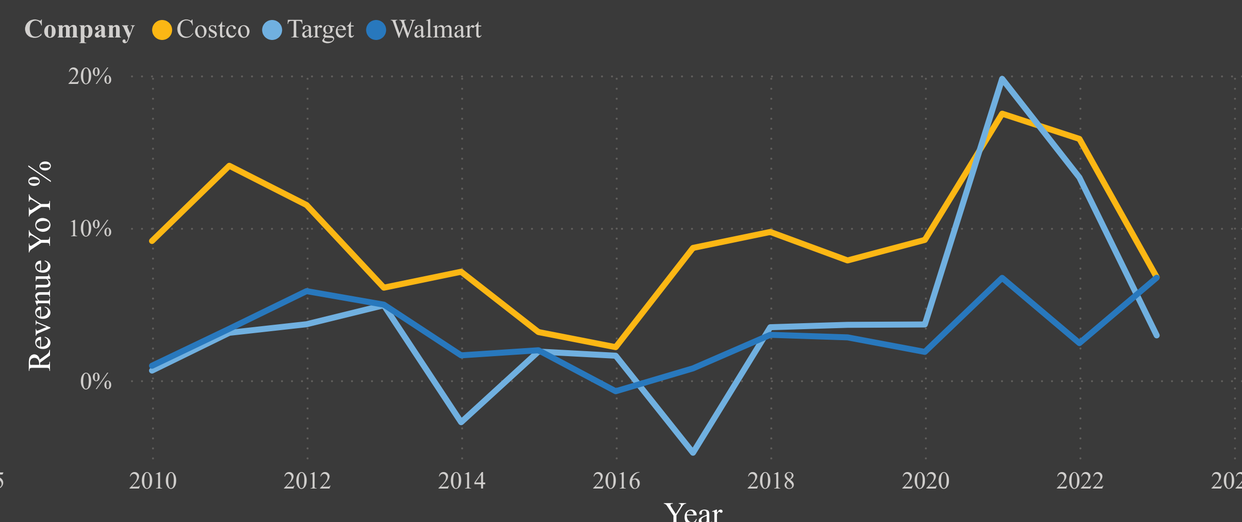
Net Profit Margin by Year and Company



Revenue by Year and Company



Revenue growth YOY by Year and Company

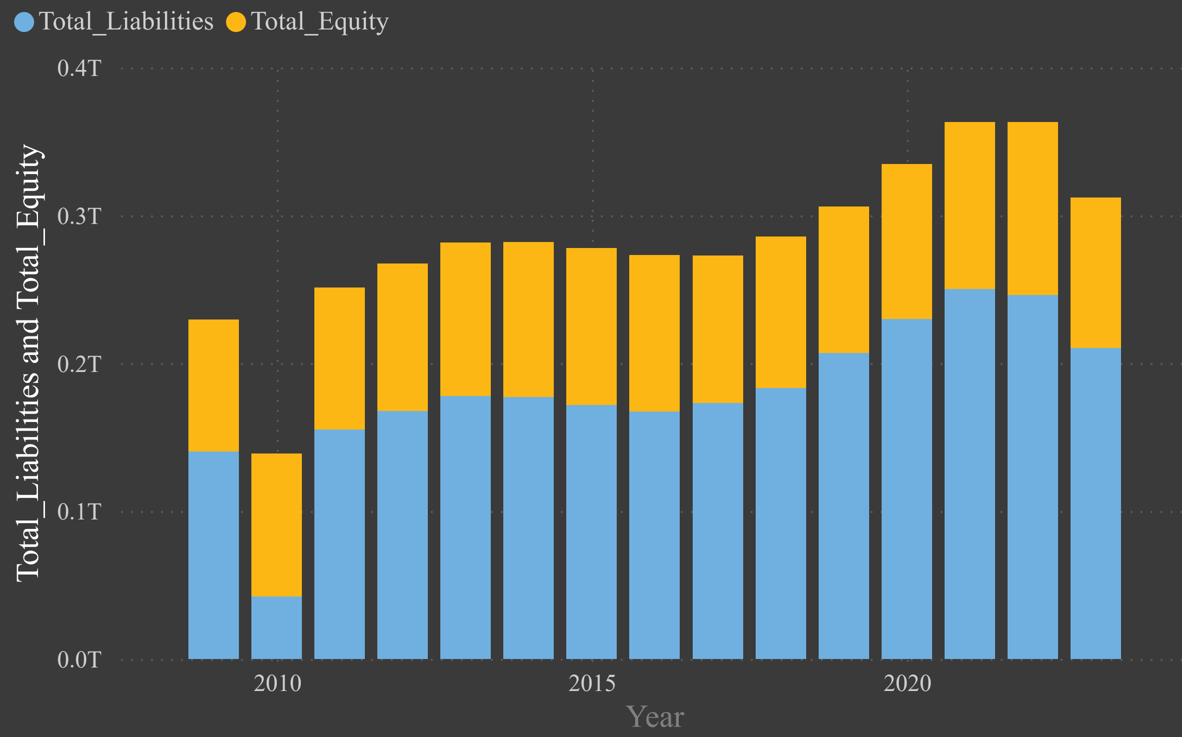


Financial Strength & Risk

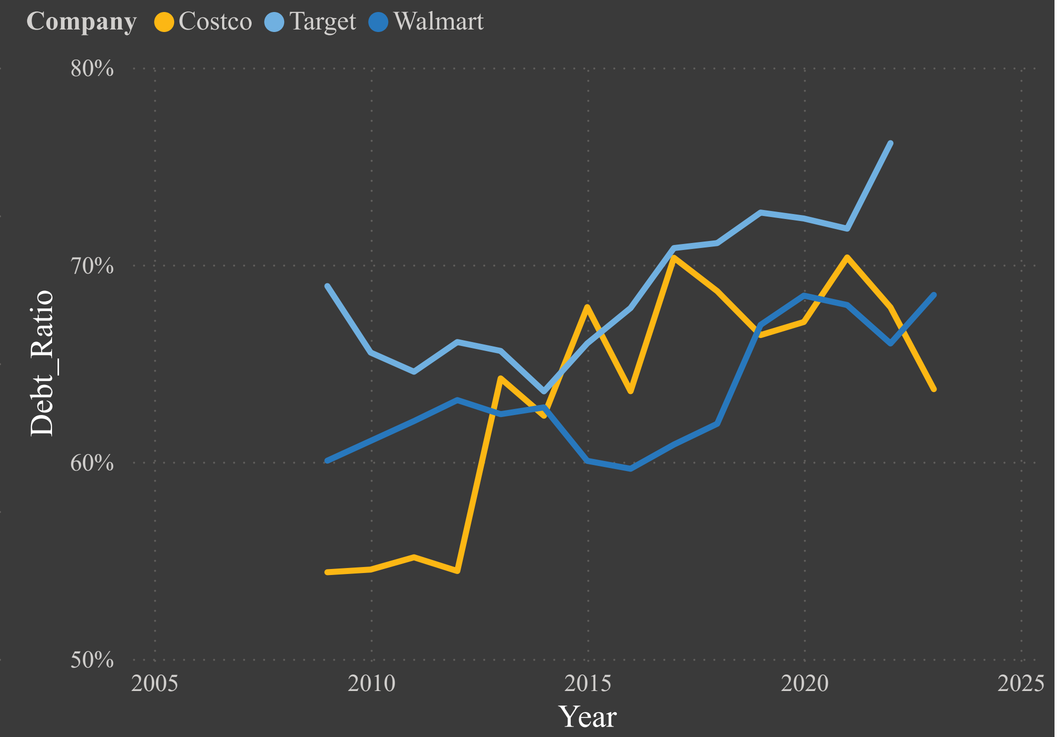
Company

All

Total Liabilities and Total Equity by Year

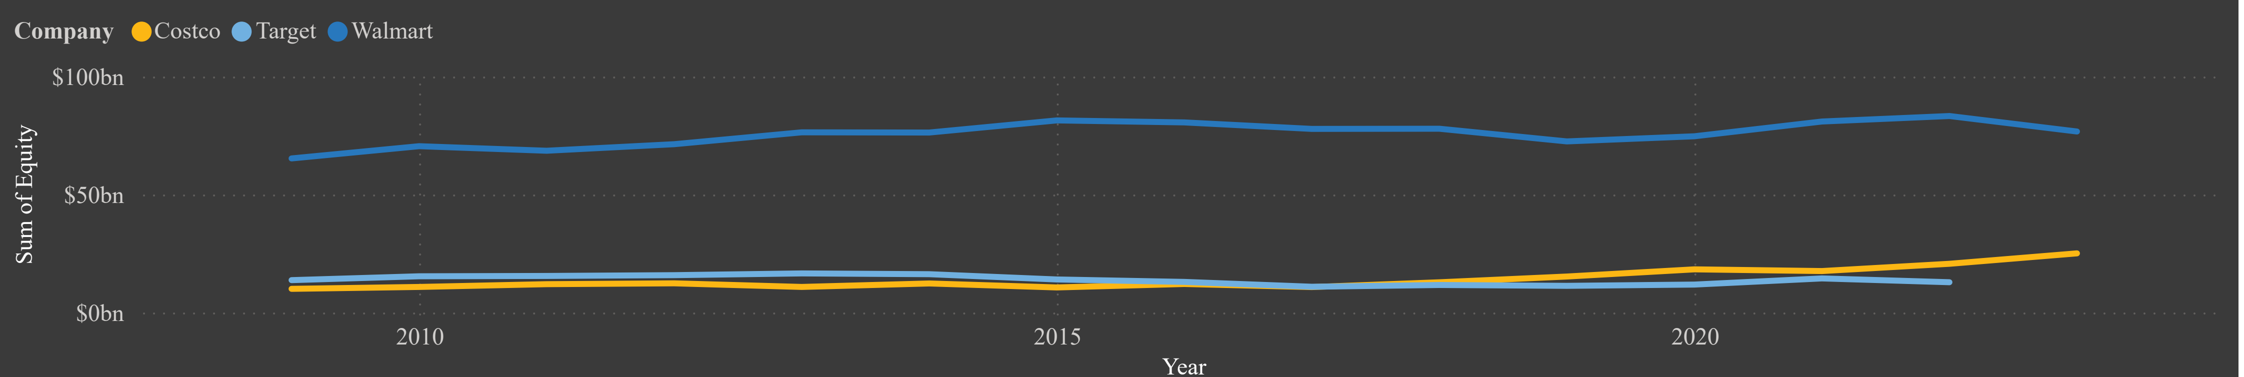


Debt Ratio by Year and Company



- Target maintains higher leverage across the period, increasing financial risk sensitivity.
- Walmart shows stable ROE supported by disciplined capital structure.

Equity by Year and Company



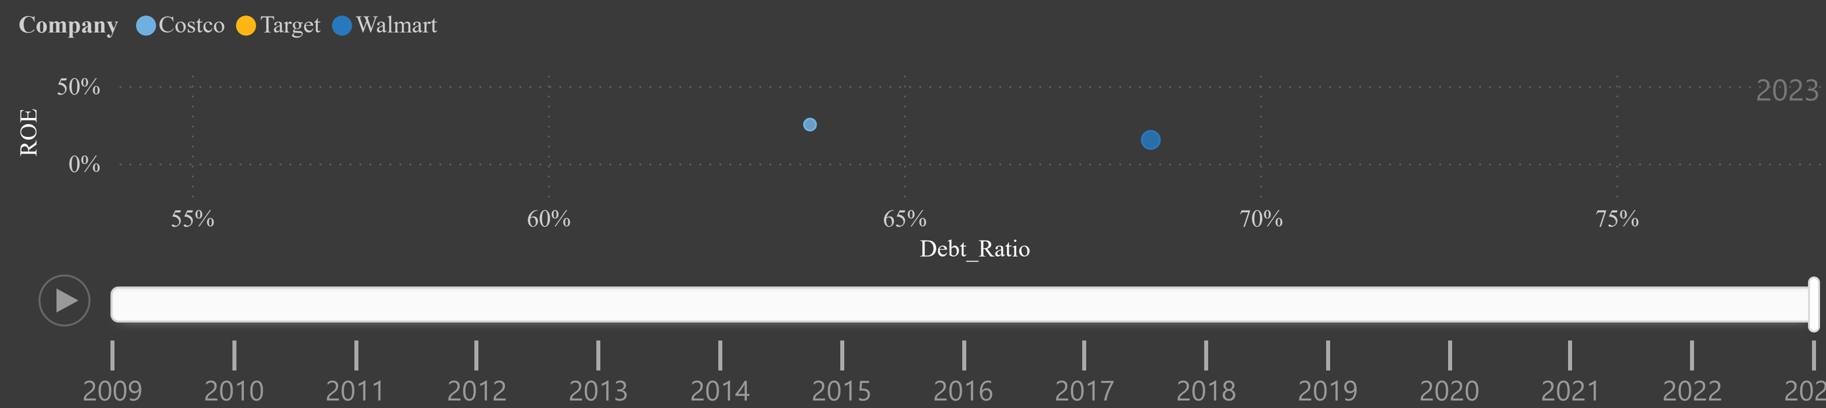
Insights & Strategic Comparison

Company

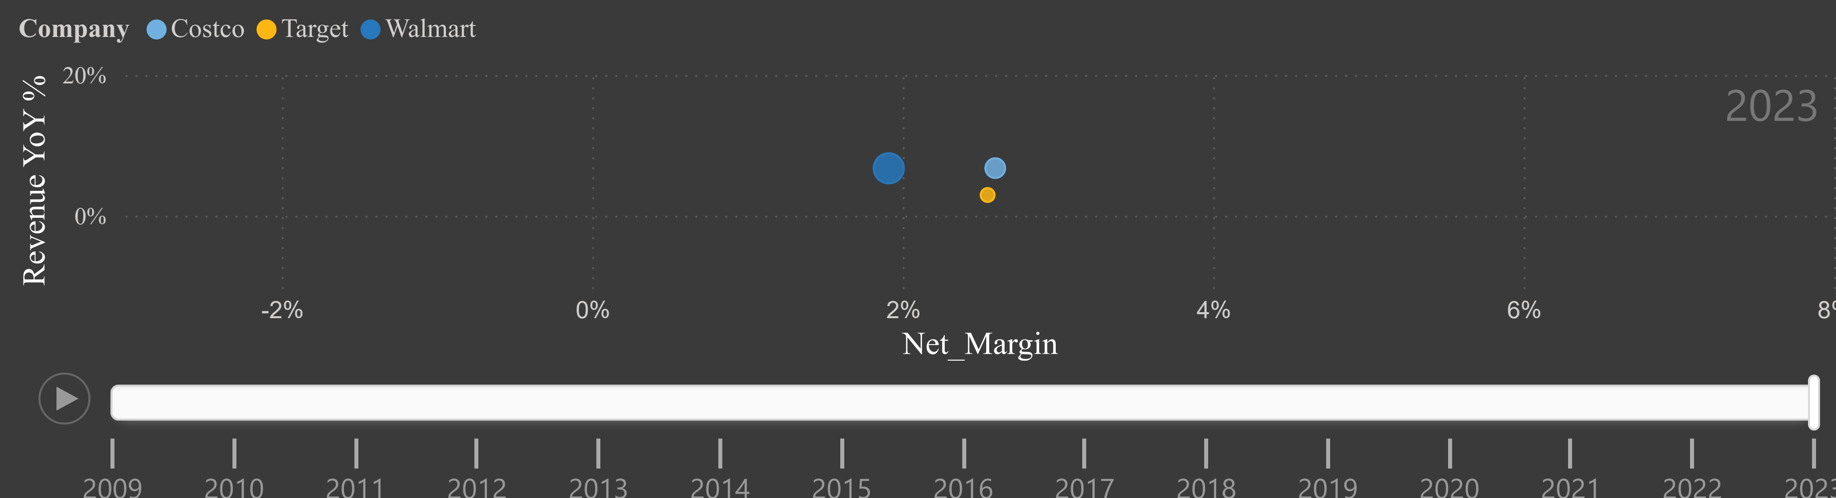
All

Company	Revenue YoY %	Net_Margin	ROE	Debt_Ratio
Costco	13.44%	2.20%	21.29%	64.73%
Target	10.35%	3.71%	22.38%	63.40%
Walmart	9.06%	2.82%	18.33%	63.93%

Debt Ratio and ROE by Year



Net Margins and Revenue Growth by Year



Key Financial Insights (2009–2023)

• Costco demonstrates the strongest revenue growth trajectory while maintaining stable profitability.

• Target achieves higher margins but exhibits greater performance volatility.

• Walmart reflects mature-scale stability with slower percentage growth.

• Leverage does not consistently enhance ROE, illustrating the risk-return tradeoff in capital structure decisions.